

LIABILITY WAIVER

I, _____, recognize that my excursion with Ventura Land Trust is a recreational endeavor within the meaning of Civil Code § 846. In that context, I understand that neither the Ventura Land Trust, the Hadlen Family nor any proprietor of the Harmon Canyon property will be liable for any injury I may sustain by availing myself of the opportunity to undertake such recreational endeavor as that statute provides among other protections,

An owner of any estate or any other interest in real property [including a permissive use as held by Ventura Land Trust], whether possessory or nonpossessory, who gives permission to another for entry or use for the above [recreational] purpose upon the premises does not thereby (a) extend any assurance that the premises are safe for that purpose, or (b) constitute the person to whom permission has been granted the legal status of an invitee or licensee to whom a duty of care is owed, or (c) assume responsibility for or incur liability for any injury to person or property caused by any act of the person to whom permission has been granted except as provided in this section. [clarification added].

I agree to assume the full risk of any loss, damage, or destruction to property or any injury or illness to my person that may occur as a result from engaging in the recreational endeavors provided. I waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, all claims and demands which may arise or result in the course of my participation in the activities to which this waiver applies, and I release VLT and its employees, officers, trustees and volunteers, and all proprietors of the Walker-Hearne property from all claims, demands, losses and liabilities of every kind and nature, including claims for personal injury and loss or damage to property arising out of or in connection with my participation.
